Students' Code of Conduct

Rights and Responsibility

The adult learning environment at our AIHM encourages and supports the participation of people from diverse backgrounds. Our aim is for each student to have an equal opportunity to learn in a supportive environment.

Students' Rights

AIHM recognises that students have the right to:

- Expect the AIHM to provide training of a high quality that recognises and appreciates their individual learning styles and needs,
- Have access to all the AIHM services regardless of educational background, gender, marital status, sexual preference, race, colour, pregnancy, national origin, ethnic or socio-economic background, physical or intellectual impairment, and religious or political affiliation,
- Have their prior learning, acquired competencies, and experience appropriately recognised in determining their requirements for training and assessment,
- Be advised of the learning outcomes and prescribed assessment tasks for the training program of their choice prior to its commencement.
- Appeal for a review of the results of an assessment.
- Expect to achieve the published learning outcomes from their training program, if they, in turn, devote the necessary time and diligence to it,
- Learn from fully qualified, competent and diligent Trainers who observe their responsibility to address students' learning needs, assist them to achieve the course outcomes, and assess their students' work fairly,
- Learn in an appropriately appointed, safe and clean learning environment, free of all forms of harassment and discrimination,
- Be treated with dignity and fairness,
- Expect AIHM will be ethical and open in their dealings, their communications and their advertising,
- Expect the AIHM will observe their duty of care to them,
- Efficient handling of administrative matters and in the processing of fees, concessions, refunds etc,
- Privacy and confidentiality, and secure storage of student records in accordance with the organisation's policies, to the extent permitted by law.
